BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

William Arceneaux was born in Scott, Louisiana on August 19, 1941. He received a B. A. in history from University of Southwestern Louisiana in 1962, a M. A. in United States and southern history from Louisiana State University in 1965, and a Ph.D. in Latin American history and politics from Louisiana State University in 1969. From 1972 to 1975, he was the executive director of the Louisiana Coordinating Council for Higher Education. In 1975, he was named as the commissioner of higher education for the Louisiana Board of Regents, in which capacity he served until 1987. From 1987 to 2007, he served as the president of the Louisiana Association of Independent Colleges and Universities.

Arceneaux was involved in additional professional organizations as well. In many instances, he chaired or served on the organizations' board of directors. These include:

- Association Des Universités Partiellement Ou Entièrement De Langue Française (1981-1987)
- Commission on French as a Second Language (1981-1983)
- Consortium for Service to Latin America (1982-1997)
- Council for the Development of French in Louisiana, commonly known as CODOFIL, (1982-2006)
- Louisiana Educational Television Authority (1989-2007)
- Louisiana Historical Association (1974-1986)
- Louisiana State Museum (1978-1980)
- National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities (1996-2005).

He also served on the board of the Student Loan Marketing Association, or Sallie Mae (1981-1997). President Bill Clinton appointed him chair of that group in 1993, a position he held until 1997.

He was also active in civic organizations:

- Baton Rouge Center for World Affairs (1998-2007)
- Camelot Club (1981-1984)
- City Club of Baton Rouge (2000-2007)
- Discover (1979)
- Foreign Relations Association of New Orleans (1973-1981)
- Rotary Club of Baton Rouge (1981-1988, 1995)
- SAFE Council (1985-1987).

See series descriptions list for more details on Arceneaux's involvement in these professional and civic organizations.

He is the author of No Spark of Malice: The Murder of Martin Begnaud and Acadian General: Alfred Mouton and the Civil War. He is the co-editor of Postsecondary Education In Transition: Planning for Change in Louisiana.

He is married to Patricia Arceneaux; they have four children.

Resumes and curriculum vitae for Arceneaux are included in Series VIII, Biographical Material.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection primarily documents the professional activities of William Arceneux as a higher education official and policy maker in Louisiana and as a participant in efforts to preserve and promote French language and culture in Louisiana. Materials are largely textual, comprising correspondence, his personal files from professional and civic organizations and boards in which he participated or served in a leadership role, speeches, scrapbooks, personal papers, photographs, printed items, and artifacts. Records and documents related to the following organizations are found throughout the collection, though they are primarily centered in the "Professional Organizations" series:

Association Des Universités Partiellement Ou Entièrement De Langue Française
Commission on French as a Second Language
Consortium for Service to Latin America
Council for the Development of French in Louisiana (CODOFIL)
Louisiana Association of Independent Colleges and Universities
Louisiana Board of Regents
Louisiana Educational Television Authority
Louisiana Historical Association
Louisiana State Museum, Board of Directors
National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities
Student Loan Marketing Association (Sallie Mae)

Scrapbooks generally cover a calendar year and include publications from boards and commissions on which Arceneux served; clippings related to issues in higher education such as desegregation of higher education, funding for Louisiana colleges and universities, and degree offerings in the state; programs from graduations and other university events; letters of appointment and congratulations; and items related to Arceneux's books and political activities, and French language and culture in Louisiana. Personal papers include topical files as well as his files on his historical writings, genealogy, and support of political candidates.

See series descriptions for further details.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS

Series I: Correspondence, 1972-2007, undated (1.5 linear feet)

Arranged chronologically.

Arceneaux's correspondence primarily relates to his professional life in higher education organizations and bodies, Sallie Mae, and the Council for Development of French in Louisiana. Additionally, letters include details of Arceneaux's speaking engagements at civic organizations, colleges, and universities (1972-1989), attending education conferences (1974-1985), conducting research projects (1981, 1985, 1999-2001), and making donations to political campaigns, colleges, and universities (1992-2007). He was particularly active in Mary Landrieu's gubernatorial campaign, and that interest is also represented in his correspondence. Letters also pertain to the impact of Hurricane Katrina on Louisiana's educational system (2005-2006). Thank you letters and holiday greeting cards (1981-2007) are also present in this series. Originals signed by politicians Senator J. Bennett Johnston, Senator John Breaux, Representative Cleo Fields, President Bill Clinton, Mary Landrieu as state treasurer and senator, Senator Tom Daschle, Lt. Governor Kathleen Blanco, and Governor Mike Foster placed in vault.

Note--Some correspondence materials also appear within the following series: Professional Organizations, Civic Organizations, Political Campaigns, and Writings. These files are grouped by organization and arranged chronologically.

Series II: Printed Items and Graphic Materials, 1965, 1970-2007, undated (1.25 linear feet)

This series is comprised of business cards, certificates, clippings, invitations, photographs, and printed items. Business cards are primarily those of professionals associated with Arceneaux, many from Louisiana. Certificates largely represent Arceneaux's achievements in Louisiana higher education. Clippings primarily cover topics related to higher education in Louisiana and the United States. Topics also include Arceneaux's speaking engagements and reviews of his book No Spark of Malice. Photographs include professional headshots of Arceneaux as well as candid images of him in individual and group settings. Many photographs were taken at professional gatherings. Some photographs contain details on reverse written by Arceneaux. Printed Items largely consist of invitations and programs for events related to higher education in Louisiana. This includes items related to commencement exercises at Louisiana universities and colleges, inaugural and retirement celebrations for chancellors and presidents, academic convocations, and groundbreaking ceremonies. Printed Items also include material related to the Louisiana Treasurer's Advisory Group (1994), the Democratic National Committee (1996-1997), White House holiday tours, political fundraisers, Democratic National Committee's presidential galas, Louisiana bicentennial celebrations, Louisiana Legends galas, birthday parties, and wedding ceremonies.
